5. Exemption from liability for loss, mis-delivery, delay or damage.—Pakistan Post shall not incur any liability by reason of the loss, mis-delivery or delay of, or damage to, any postal article in course of transmission by post, except in so far as such liability may in express terms be undertaken by the Pakistan Post as hereinafter provided; and no officer of the Post office shall incur any liability by reason of any such loss, mis-delivery, delay or damage, unless he has caused the same fraudulently or by his willful act or default.

CHAPTER III

POSTAGE

6. Power to declare rates of foreign postage.—(1) Where arrangements are in force with any foreign country, for the transmission by post of postal articles between Pakistan and such country, the Division concerned may, in conformity with the provisions of such arrangements, declare what postage rates and other sums shall be charged in respect of such postal articles, and may make rules as to the scale of weight, terms and conditions subject to which the rates so declared shall be charged.

(2) Unless and until such declaration as aforesaid is made, the existing rates and regulations shall continue in force.

7. Liability for payment of postage.—(1) The addressee of a postal article on which postage or any other sum chargeable under this Act is due, shall be bound to pay the postage or sum so chargeable on his accepting delivery of the postal article, unless he forthwith returns it un-opened:
Provided that, if any such postal article appears to the satisfaction of the Post Master General to have been maliciously sent for the purpose of annoying the addressee, he may remit the postage.

(2) If any postal article on which postage or any other sum chargeable under this Act is due, is refused or returned as aforesaid, or if the addressee is dead or cannot be found, then the sender shall be bound to pay the postage or sum due thereon under this Act.

8. Recovery of postage and other sums due in respect of postal articles.—If any person refuses to pay any postage or other sum due from him under this Act in respect of any postal article, the sum so due may, on application made by an officer of the Pakistan Post authorized in this behalf by the written order of the Post Master General, be recovered for the use of the Post Office from the person so refusing, as if it were a fine imposed under this Act by any Magistrate having jurisdiction where that person may for the time being be resident; and the Post Master General may further direct that any other postal article, not being on Pakistan State service, addressed to that person shall be withheld from him until the sum so due is paid or recovered as aforesaid.

9. Customs-duty paid by Pakistan Post to be recoverable as postage.—When a postal article, on which any duty of customs is payable, has been received by post from any place beyond the limits of Pakistan and the duty has been paid by the postal authorities at any customs-port or elsewhere, the amount of the duty shall be recoverable as if it were postage due under this Act.

10. Post Office marks prima facie evidence of certain facts denoted.—In every proceeding for the recovery of any postage or other sum alleged to be due under this Act in respect of a postal article:—

   (a) the production of the postal article, having thereon the official mark of the Post Office denoting that the article has been refused, or that the addressee is dead or cannot be found, shall be _prima facie_ evidence of the fact so denoted, and

   (b) the person from whom the postal article purports to have come shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to be the sender thereof.

11. Official mark to be evidence of amount of postage.—The official mark on a postal article denoting that any postage or other sum is due in respect thereof to the Post Office of Pakistan or to the Post Office of any foreign country, shall be _prima facie_ evidence that the sum denoted as aforesaid is so due.
CHAPTER IV

POSTAGE STAMPS

12. Provision of postage stamps and power to make rules as to them.—(1) The Division concerned shall cause postage stamps to be provided of such kinds and denoting such values as it may think necessary for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The Division concerned may make rules as to the supply, sale and use of postage stamps.

(3) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may —

(a) fix the price at which postage stamps shall be sold;

(b) declare the classes of postal articles in respect of which postage stamps shall be used for the payment of postage or other sums chargeable under this Act;

(c) prescribe the conditions with regard to perforation, defacement and all other matters subject to which postage stamps may be accepted or refused in payment of postage or other sums;

(d) regulate the custody, supply and sale of postage stamps;

(e) declare the persons by whom and the terms and conditions subject to which postage stamps may be sold; and

(f) prescribe the duties and remuneration of persons selling postage stamps.

13. Postage stamps to be deemed to stamp for the purpose of revenue.—(1) Postage stamps provided under section 12 shall be deemed to stamp issued by Government for the purpose of revenue within the meaning of the Pakistan Penal Code, and, subject to the other provisions of this Act, shall be used for the pre-payment of postage or other sums chargeable under this Act in respect of postal articles, except where the Division concerned directs that prepayment shall be made in some other way.

(2) Where the Division concerned has directed that pre-payment of postage or other sums chargeable under this Act in respect of postal articles may be made by pre-paying the value denoted by the impressions of stamping machines issued under its authority, the impression of any such machine shall likewise be deemed to be a stamp issued by Government for the purpose of revenue, within the meaning of the Pakistan Penal Code.

CHAPTER V

CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION OF POSTAL ARTICLES

14. Redelivery to sender or delivery to another addressee at the request of the sender of postal article in course of transmission by post.—(1) The Director General may, by rule, provide for the redelivery to the sender, or delivery to another addressee at the request of the sender without reference to the consent of the addressee and subject to such condition (if any) as may be deemed fit, of any postal article in course of transmission by post.

(2) Save as provided by any rules that maybe made under sub-section (1), the sender shall not be entitled to recall a postal article in course of transmission by post or to ask for its delivery to another addressee.

15. Transmission by post of anything injurious prohibited.—(1) Except as otherwise provided by rule and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed thereby, no person shall send by post any explosive, dangerous, filthy, noxious or deleterious substance, any sharp instrument not properly protected, or any living creature which is either noxious or likely to injure postal articles in course of transmission by post or any officer of the Pakistan Post.

(2) No person shall send by post any article or thing which is likely to injure postal articles in course of transmission by post or any officer of the Pakistan Post.

16. Transmission by post of anything indecent, etc., prohibited.—No person shall send by post —

(a) any indecent or obscene printing, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book or card, or any other indecent or obscene article; or

(b) any postal article having thereon, or on the cover thereof, any words, marks or designs of an indecent, obscene, seditious, scurrilous, threatening or grossly offensive character.

17. Power to postpone dispatch or delivery of certain postal articles.—(1) Where the dispatch or delivery from a post office of letters would be delayed by the dispatch or delivery therefrom at the same time of printed papers or small packets and parcels, or any of them, such packets or parcels, or any of them, may, subject to such operational rules as the Director General may make in this behalf, be detained in the Post Office so long as may be necessary.
(2) Where separate parcel posts are established, parcels may be forwarded and conveyed by them, being detained, if necessary, in the Post Office for that purpose.

18. Power to deal with postal articles posted in contravention of Act.—(1) Any postal article sent by post in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act may be detained and either returned to the sender or forwarded to destination, in each case charged with such additional postage (if any) as the Director General may, by rule, direct.

(2) Any officer in charge of a post office or authorized by the Post Master General in this behalf may open or unfasten any newspaper or any printed paper, small packet or parcel, in course of transmission by post, which he suspects to have been sent by post in contravention of section 15 or of section 16 or any of the provisions of this Act relating to postage.

Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (1)—

(a) any postal article sent by post in contravention of the provisions of section 15 may, under the authority of the Post Master General, if necessary, be opened and destroyed; and

(b) any postal article sent by post in contravention of the provisions of section 16 may be disposed of in such manner as the Director General may by rule direct.

19. Power to deal with postal articles containing goods contraband or liable to duty.—Except as otherwise provided in this Act, where a postal article suspected to contain any goods of which the import by post or the transmission by post is prohibited by or under any enactment for the time being in force, or anything liable to duty, is received for delivery at a post office, the officer in charge of the post office shall send a notice in writing to the addressee inviting him to attend, either in person or by agent, within a specified time at the post office, and shall in the presence of the addressee or his agent, or if the addressee or his agent fails to attend as aforesaid then in his absence, open and examine the postal article:

Provided that if the Director General so directs in the case of any post office or class of post offices, the officer in charge of the post office shall call in two respectable persons as witnesses before he opens a postal article in the absence of the addressee or his agent:

Provided further that in all cases a postal article, after being opened under this section, shall be delivered to the addressee, unless it is required for the purpose of any further proceeding under this or any other law or enactment for the time being in force, and that the opening of the postal article and the circumstances connected therewith shall be immediately reported to the Post Master General.

20. Power to deliver such articles to Customs Authority.—The Division concerned may, by general or special order, empower any officer of the Post Office, specified in such order, to deliver any postal article, received from beyond the limits of Pakistan and suspected to contain anything liable to duty, to such Customs authority as may be specified in the said order, and such Customs authority shall deal with such article in accordance with the provisions of the Customs Act, 1969 or of any other law for the time being in force.

21. Power to intercept notified goods during transmission by post.—Where a notification has been published under section 16 of the Customs Act, 1969, in respect of any goods of any specified description, or where the import or export into or from Pakistan of goods of any specified description has been prohibited or restricted by or under any other enactment for the time being in force, any officer of the Post Office empowered in this behalf by the Division concerned may search, or cause search to be made, for any such goods in course of transmission by post, and shall deliver all postal articles reasonably believed or found to contain such goods to such officer as the Federal Board of Revenue may appoint in this behalf, and such goods may be disposed of in such manner as the Federal Board of Revenue may direct in carrying out any such search such officer of the Post Office may open or unfasten, or cause to be opened or unfastened, any newspaper or any printed papers or small packet in course of transmission by post.

22. Power to intercept postal articles for public good.—(1) On the occurrence of any public emergency, or, in the interest of the public safety or tranquility, the Ministry of Interior or Minister of Interior or the Home Department of Province, or any officer specially authorized in this behalf may, by order in writing, direct that any postal article or class or description of postal articles in course of transmission by post shall be intercepted or detained, or shall be disposed of in such manner as the authority issuing the order may direct.

(2) If any doubt arises as to the existence of a public emergency, or as to whether any act done under sub-section (1) was in the interest of the public safety or tranquility, a certificate Ministry of Interior or, as the case may be, of the Home Department of Province shall be conclusive proof on the point.

23. Power to deal with postal articles bearing fictitious or previously used stamps.—(1) Where a postal article is received by post from any place,—

(a) bearing a fictitious postage stamps, that is to say, any facsimile or imitation or representation of a postage stamp; or
(b) purporting to be prepaid with any postage stamp which has been previously used to prepay any other postal article, the officer in charge of the post office at which the postal article is received, shall send a notice to the addressee inviting him to attend, either in person or by agent, within a specified time at the post office to receive delivery of the postal article.

(2) If the addressee or his agent attends at the post office within the time specified in the notice and consents to make known to the officer in charge of the post office the name and address of the sender of the postal article and to redeliver to the officer aforesaid the portion of the postal article which bears the address and the fictitious or previously used postage stamp, or, if the postal article is inseparable from the stamp, the entire postal article, the postal article shall be delivered to the addressee or his agent.

(3) If the addressee or his agent fails to attend at the post office within the time specified in the notice, or, having attended within that time, refuses to make known the name and address of the sender or to redeliver the postal article or portion thereof as required by sub-section (2), the postal article shall not be delivered to him, but shall be disposed of in such manner as the Division concerned may direct.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the expression “postage stamp” includes any postage stamp for denoting any rate or duty of postage of any foreign country and the impression of any stamping or franking machine provided or authorized for the like purpose by or under the authority of the Government of such country.

25. Power to detain newspapers and other articles being transmitted by post.—(1) Any officer of the Post Office authorized by the Post Master General in this behalf may detain any postal article in course of transmission by post which he suspects to contain—

(a) (i) any newspaper or book as defined in the Press, Newspapers, News Agencies and Book Registration Ordinance, 2002 (XLVI II of 2002); or

(ii) any document containing any treasonable or seditious matter that is to say, any matter the publication of which is punishable under section 123A or section 124A, as the case may be, of the Pakistan Penal Code; or
(b) any newspaper as defined in the Press, Newspapers, News Agencies and Book Registration Ordinance, 2002 (XL VIII of 2002) edited, printed or published otherwise than in conformity with the rules laid down in that Act; and shall deliver any postal article so detained to such officer as the Provincial Government may appoint in this behalf.

(2) Any officer detaining any postal article under the provisions of sub-section (1) shall forthwith send by post to the addressee of such article notice of the fact of such detention.

(3) The Provincial Government shall cause the contents of any postal article detained under sub-section (1) to be examined, and, if it appears to the Provincial Government that the article contained any newspaper, book or other document, of the nature described in clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1), may pass such orders as to the disposal of the article and its contents as it may deem proper, and, if it does not so appear, shall release the article and its contents, unless the same be otherwise liable to seizure under any law for the time being in force:

Provided that any person interested in any article detained under the provisions of clause (a) of sub-section (1) may, within two months from the date of such detention, apply to the Provincial Government for release of the same, and the Provincial Government shall consider such application and pass such orders thereon as it may deem to be proper:

Provided also that, if such application is rejected, the applicant may, within two months from the date of the order rejecting the application, apply to the High Court for release of the article and its contents on the ground that the article did not contain any newspaper, book or other document containing any treasonable or seditious matter.

(4) In this section “document” includes also any painting, drawing or photograph, or other visible representation.

26. Procedure for disposal by High Court of applications for release of newspapers and articles so detained.—Every application made under the second proviso to sub-section (3) of section 25 shall be heard and determined in the manner provided by sections 99D to 99F of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

27. Jurisdiction barred.—No order passed or action taken under section 25 shall be called in question in any Court otherwise than in accordance with the second proviso to sub-section (3) of that section.
CHAPTER VI

REGISTRATION, INSURANCE AND VALUE-PAYABLE POST

28. Registration of postal articles.—The sender of a postal article may, subject to the other provisions of this Act, have the article registered at the post office at which it is posted, and require a receipt therefor; and the Division concerned may, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that, in addition to any postage chargeable under this Act, such further fee as may be fixed by the notification shall be paid on account of the registration of postal articles.

29. Power to make rules as to registration.—(1) The Division concerned may make rules as to the registration of postal articles.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may —

(a) declare in what cases registration shall be required;

(b) prescribe the manner in which the fees for registration shall be paid; and

(c) direct that twice the fee for registration shall be levied on the delivery of a postal article required to be registered on which the fee for registration has not been prepaid.

30. Insurance of postal articles.—The Director General, Pakistan Post under intimation to the Division concerned may, by notification in the Director General’s Circular, direct —

(a) that any postal article may, subject to the other provisions of this Act, be insured at the post office at which it is posted, against the risk of loss or damage in course of transmission by post, and that a receipt therefor shall be granted to the person posting it; and

POSTAGE

6. Power to declare rates of foreign postage.—(1) Where arrangements are in force with any foreign country, for the transmission by post of postal articles between Pakistan and such country, the Controlling Ministry may, in conformity with the provisions of such arrangements, declare what postage rates and other sums shall be charged in respect of such postal articles, and may make rules as to the scale of weight, terms and conditions subject to which the rates so declared shall be charged.

(2) Unless and until such declaration as aforesaid is made, the existing rates and regulations shall continue in force.

7. Liability for payment of postage.—(1) The addressee of a postal article on which postage or any other sum chargeable under this Act is due, shall be bound to pay the postage or sum so chargeable on his accepting delivery of the postal article, unless he forthwith returns it unopened:

Provided that, if any such postal article appears to the satisfaction of the Post Master General to have been maliciously sent for the purpose of annoying the addressee, he may remit the postage.

(2) If any postal article on which postage or any other sum chargeable under this Act is due, is refused or returned as aforesaid, or if the addressee is dead or cannot be found, then the sender shall be bound to pay the postage or sum due thereon under this Act.

8. Recovery of postage and other sums due in respect of postal articles.—If any person refuses to pay any postage or other sum due from him under this Act in respect of any postal article, the sum so due may, on application made by an officer of the Post Office authorized in this behalf by the Written order of the Post Master General, be recovered for the use of the Post Office from the persons refusing, as if it were a fine imposed under this Act by any Magistrate having jurisdiction where that person may for the time being be resident; and the Post Master General may further direct that any other postal article, not being on Pakistan State service, addressed to that person shall be withheld from him until the sum so due is paid or recovered as aforesaid.

9. Customs-duty paid by the Post Office to be recoverable as postage.—When a postal article, on which any duty of customs is payable, has been received by post from any place beyond the limits of Pakistan and the duty has been paid by the postal authorities at any customs-port or elsewhere, the amount of the duty shall be recoverable as if it were postage due under this Act.

10. Post Office marks prima facie evidence of certain facts denoted.—In every proceeding for the recovery of any postage or other sum alleged to be due under this Act in respect of a postal article.—

(a) the production of the postal article, having thereon the official mark of the Post Office denoting that the article has been refused, or that the addressee is dead or cannot be found, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact so denoted; and

(b) the person from whom the postal article purports to have come shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to be the sender thereof.

11. Official mark to be evidence of amount of postage.—The official mark on a postal article denoting that any postage or other sum is due in respect thereof to the Post Office of Pakistan or to the Post Office of any foreign country, shall be prima facie evidence that the sum denoted as aforesaid is so due.

POSTAGE STAMPS

12. Provision of postage stamps and power to make rules as to them.—(1) The Controlling Ministry shall cause postage stamps to be provided of such kinds and denoting such values as it may think necessary for the purposes of this Act.

(2) The Controlling Ministry may make rules as to the supply, sale and use of postage stamps.

(3) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may

(a) fix the price at which postage stamps shall be sold;

(b) declare the classes of postal articles in respect of which postage stamps shall be used for the payment of postage or other sums chargeable under this Act;

(c) prescribe the conditions with regard to perforation, defacement and all other matters subject to which postage stamps may be accepted or refused in payment of postage or other sums;

(d) regulate the custody, supply and sale of postage stamps;

(e) declare the persons by whom and the terms and conditions subject to which postage stamps may be sold; and

(f) prescribe the duties and remuneration of persons selling postage stamps.

13. Postage stamps to be deemed to be stamps for the purpose of revenue.—(1) Postage stamps provided under section 16 shall be deemed to be stamps issued by Government for the purpose of revenue within the meaning of the Pakistan Penal Code, and, subject to the other provisions of this Act, shall be used for the pre-payment of postage or other sums chargeable under this Act in respect of postal articles, except where the Controlling Ministry directs that pre-payment shall be made in some other way.

(2) Where the Controlling Ministry has directed that pre-payment of postage or other sums chargeable under this Act in respect of postal articles may be made by prepaying the value denoted by the impressions of stamping machines issued under its authority, the impression of any such machine shall like wise be deemed to be a stamp issued by Government for the purpose of revenue, within the meaning of the Pakistan Penal Code.

CHAPTER V

CONDITIONS OF TRANSMISSION OF POSTAL ARTICLES

14. Re-delivery to sender or delivery to another addressee at the request of the sender of postal article in course of transmission by post.—(1) The Director General may, by rule, provide for the re-delivery to the sender, or delivery to another addressee at the request of the sender without reference to the consent of the addressee and subject to such condition (if any) as may be deemed fit, of any postal article in course of transmission by post.

(2) Save as provided by any rules that maybe made under sub-section (1), the sender shall not be entitled to recall a postal article in course of transmission by post or to ask for its delivery to another addressee.

15. Transmission by post of anything injurious prohibited.—(1) Except as otherwise provided by rule and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed thereby, no person shall send by post any explosive, dangerous, filthy, noxious or deleterious substance, any sharp instrument not properly protected, or any living creature which is either noxious or likely to injure postal articles in course of transmission by post or any officer of the Post Office.

(2) No person shall send by post any article or thing which is likely to injure postal articles in course of transmission by post or any officer of the Post Office.

16. Transmission by post of anything indecent, etc., prohibited.—No person shall send by post —

(a) any indecent or obscene printing, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book or card, or any other indecent or obscene article; or

(b) any postal article having thereon, or on the cover thereof, any words, marks or designs of an indecent, obscene, seditious, scurrilous, threatening or grossly offensive character.

17. Power to postpone dispatch or delivery of certain postal articles.—(1) Where the dispatch or delivery from a post office of letters would be delayed by the dispatch or delivery therefrom at the same time of printed papers or small packets and parcels, or any of them, such packets or parcels, or any of them, may, subject to such rules as the Director General may make in this behalf, be detained in the Post Office so long as may be necessary.
(2) Where separate parcel posts are established, parcels may be forwarded and conveyed by them, being detained, if necessary, in the Post Office for that purpose.

18. Power to deal with postal articles posted in contravention of Act.—(1) Any postal article sent by post in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act may be detained and either returned to the sender or forwarded to destination, in each case charged with such additional postage (if any) as the Director General may, by rule, direct.

(2) Any officer in charge of a post office or authorized by the Post Master General in this behalf may open or unfasten any newspaper or any printed paper, small packet or parcel, in course of transmission by post, which he suspects to have been sent by post in contravention of section 20, clause (a) or of section 21 or any of the provisions of this Act relating to postage. Notwithstanding anything in sub-section (1)—

(a) any postal article sent by post in contravention of the provisions of section 19 may, under the authority of the Post Master General, if necessary, be opened and destroyed; and

(b) any postal article sent by post in contravention of the provisions of section 20 may be disposed of in such manner as the Director General may by rule direct.

19. Power to deal with postal articles containing goods contraband or liable to duty.—Except as otherwise provided in this Act, where a postal article suspected to contain any goods of which the import by post or the transmission by post is prohibited by or under any enactment for the time being in force, or anything liable to duty, is received for delivery at a post office, the officer in charge of the post office shall send a notice in writing to the addressee inviting him to attend, either in person or by agent, within a specified time at the post office, and shall in the presence of the addressee or his agent, or if the addressee or his agent fails to attend as aforesaid then in his absence, open and examine the postal article:

Provided that if the Director General so directs in the case of any post office or class of post offices, the officer in charge of the post office shall call in two respectable persons as witnesses before he opens a postal article in the absence of the addressee or his agent:

Provided further that in all cases a postal article, after being opened under this section, shall be delivered to the addressee, unless it is required for the purpose of any further proceeding under this or any other law or enactment for the time being in force, and that the opening of the postal article and the circumstances connected therewith shall be immediately reported to the Post Master General.

20. Power to deliver such articles to Customs authority.—The Controlling Ministry may, by general or special order, empower any officer of the Post Office, specified in such order, to deliver any postal article, received from beyond the limits of Pakistan and suspected to contain anything liable to duty, to such Customs authority as may be specified in the said order, and such Customs authority shall deal with such article in accordance with the provisions of the Customs Act, 1969 or of any other law for the time being in force.

21. Power to intercept notified goods during transmission by post.—Where a notification has been published under section 16 of the Customs Act, 1969, in respect of any goods of any specified description, or where the import or export into or from Pakistan of goods of any specified description has been prohibited or restricted by or under any other enactment for the time being in force, any officer of the Post Office empowered in this behalf by the Controlling Ministry may search, or cause search to be made, for any such goods in course of transmission by post, and shall deliver all postal articles reasonably believed or found to contain such goods to such officer as the Federal Board of Revenue may appoint in this behalf, and such goods may be disposed of in such manner as the Federal Board of Revenue may direct. In carrying out any such search, such officer of the Post Office may open or unfasten, or cause to be opened or unfastened, any newspaper or any printed papers or small packet in course of transmission by post.

22. Power to intercept postal articles for public good.—(1) On the occurrence of any public emergency, or in the interest of the public safety or tranquility, the Ministry of Interior or Minister of Interior or the Home Department of Province, or any officer specially authorized in this behalf Ministry of Interior or Minister of Interior or the Home Department of Province, may, by order in writing, direct that any postal article or class or description of postal articles in course of transmission by post shall be intercepted or detained, or shall be disposed of in such manner as the authority issuing the order may direct.

(2) If any doubt arises as to the existence of a public emergency, or as to whether any act done under sub-section (1) was in the interest of the public safety or tranquility, a certificate Ministry of Interior or, as the case may be, of the Home Department of Province shall be conclusive proof on the point.

23. Power to deal with postal articles from abroad bearing fictitious or previously used stamps.—(1) Where a postal article is received by post from any place.
(a) bearing a fictitious postage stamps, that is to say, any facsimile or imitation or representation of a postage stamp; or

(b) purporting to be prepaid with any postage stamp which has been previously used to prepay any other postal article, the officer in charge of the post office at which the postal article is received, shall send a notice to the addressee inviting him to attend, either in person or by agent, within a specified time at the post office to receive delivery of the postal article.

(2) If the addressee or his agent attends at the post office within the time specified in the notice and consents to make known to the officer in charge of the post office the name and address of the sender of the postal article and to re-deliver to the officer aforesaid the portion of the postal article which bears the address and the fictitious or previously used postage stamp, or, if the postal article is inseparable from the stamp, the entire postal article, the postal article shall be delivered to the addressee or his agent.

(3) If the addressee or his agent fails to attend at the post office within the time specified in the notice, or, having attended within that time, refuses to make known the name and address of the sender or to re-deliver the postal article or portion thereof as required by sub-section (2), the postal article shall not be delivered to him, but shall be disposed of in such manner as the Controlling Ministry may direct.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the expression “postage stamp” includes any postage stamp for denoting any rate or duty of postage of any foreign country and the impression, of any stamping or franking machine provided or authorized for the like purpose by or under the authority of the Government of such country.

25. Power to detain newspapers and other articles being transmitted by post.—(1) Any officer of the Post Office authorized by the Post Master General in this behalf may detain any postal article in course of transmission by post which he suspects to contain—

(a) any newspaper or book as defined in the Press, Newspapers, News Agencies and Book Registration Ordinance, 2002(XLVI II of 2002); or
(ii) any document containing any reasonable or seditious matter that is to say, any matter the publication of which is punishable under section 123A or section 124A, as the case may be, of the Pakistan Penal Code; or

(b) any newspaper as defined in the Press, Newspapers, News Agencies and Book Registration Ordinance, 2002 (XL VIII of 2002) edited, printed or published otherwise than in conformity with the rules laid down in that Act; and shall deliver any postal article so detained to such officer as the Provincial Government may appoint in this behalf.

(2) Any officer detaining any postal article under the provisions of sub-section (1) shall forthwith send by post to the addressee of such article notice of the fact of such detention.

(3) The Provincial Government shall cause the contents of any postal article detained under sub-section (1) to be examined, and, if it appears to the Provincial Government that the article contained any newspaper, book or other document, of the nature described in clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1), may pass such orders as to the disposal of the article and its contents as it may deem proper, and, if it does not so appear, shall release the article and its contents, unless the same be otherwise liable to seizure under any law for the time being in force:

Provided that any person interested in any article detained under the provisions of clause (a) of sub-section (1) may, within two months from the date of such detention, apply to the Provincial Government for release of the same, and the Provincial Government shall consider such application and pass such orders thereon as it may deem to be proper:

Provided also that, if such application is rejected, the applicant may, within two months from the date of the order rejecting the application, apply to the High Court for release of the article and its contents on the ground that the article did not contain any newspaper, book or other document containing any treasonable or seditious matter.

(4) In this section “document” includes also any painting, drawing or photograph, or other visible representation.

26. Procedure for disposal by High Court of applications for release of newspapers and articles so detained.—Every application made under the second proviso to sub-section (3) of section 27B shall be heard and determined in the manner provided by sections 99D to 99F of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.
27. Jurisdiction barred.—No order passed or action taken under section 27B shall be called in question in any Court otherwise than in accordance with the second proviso to sub-section (3) of that section.

CHAPTER VI

REGISTRATION, INSURANCE AND VALUE-PAYABLE POST

28. Registration of postal articles.—The sender of a postal article may, subject to the other provisions of this Act, have the article registered at the post office at which it is posted, and require a receipt therefor; and the Controlling Ministry may, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that, in addition to any postage chargeable under this Act, such further fee as may be fixed by the notification shall be paid on account of the registration of postal articles.

29. Power to make rules as to registration.—(1) The Controlling Ministry may make rules as to the registration of postal articles.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may—

(a) declare in what cases registration shall be required;

(b) prescribe the manner in which the fees for registration shall be paid; and

(c) direct that twice the fee for registration shall be levied on the delivery of a postal article required to be registered on which the fee for registration has not been prepaid.

(3) Postal articles made over to the Post Office for the purpose of being registered shall be delivered, when registered, at such times and in such manner as the Director General may, by order, from time to time appoint.

30. Insurance of postal articles.—The Controlling Ministry may, by notification in the official Gazette, direct—

(a) that any postal article may, subject to the other provisions of this Act, be insured at the post office at which it is posted, against the risk of loss or damage in course of transmission by post, and that a receipt therefor shall be granted to the person posting it; and
(b) that, in addition to any postage and fees for registration chargeable under this Act, such further fee as may be fixed by the notification shall be paid on account of the insurance of postal articles.

31. Power to require insurance of postal articles.—The Controlling Ministry may, by notification in the official Gazette, declare in what cases insurance shall be required, and direct that any postal article containing anything required to be insured, which had been posted without being insured, shall be returned to the sender or shall be delivered to the addressee, subject to the payment of such special fee as may be fixed by the notification:

Provided that the levy of such special fees aforesaid shall not impose any liability upon the Federal Government in respect of the postal article.

32. Liability in respect of postal articles insured.—Subject to such conditions and restrictions as the Director General may, by rule, prescribe, the Federal Government shall be liable to pay compensation, not exceeding the amount for which a postal article has been insured, to the sender thereof for the loss of the postal article or its contents, or for any damage caused to it in course of transmission by post:

Provided that the compensation so payable shall in no case exceed the value of the article lost or the amount of the damage caused.

33. Transmission by post of value-payable postal articles.—The Controlling Ministry may, by notification in the official Gazette, direct that, subject to the other provisions of this Act and to the payment of fees at such rates as may be fixed by the notification, a sum of money specified in writing at the time of posting by the sender of a postal article shall be recoverable on the delivery thereof from the addressee, and that the sum, so recovered, shall be paid to the sender:

Provided that Controlling Ministry shall not incur any liability in respect of the sum specified for recovery, unless and until that sum has been received from the addressee.

Explanation.—Postal articles sent in accordance with the provisions of this section may be described as “value-payable” postal articles.

34. Power to give effect to arrangement with other countries.—(1) Where arrangements are in force with any foreign country, for the transmission by post of registered, insured or value-payable postal articles between Pakistan and such country, the Controlling Ministry may make rules to give effect to such arrangements.

Explanation.—“Express delivery” means delivery by a special messenger or conveyance.

84. Power to make rules as to registered newspapers.—(1) The Director General may make rules providing for the registration of newspapers for transmission by inland post as registered newspapers.

(2) For the purpose of such registration, every publication, consisting wholly or in great part of political or other news, or of articles relating thereto, or to other current topics, with or without advertisements, shall be deemed a newspaper, subject to the following conditions, namely:—

(a) that it is published in numbers at intervals of not more than thirty-one days;and

(b) that it has a bona fide list of subscribers.

(3) An extra or supplement to a newspaper, bearing the same date as the newspaper and transmitted therewith, shall be deemed to be part of the newspaper:
Provided that no such extra or supplement shall be so deemed unless it consists wholly or in great part of matter like that of the newspaper and has the title and date of publication of the newspaper printed at the top of each page.

Explanation.—Nothing in this section or in the rules thereunder shall be construed to render it compulsory to send newspapers by the inland post.

85. Power to make rules as to transmission by post of postal articles.—(1) The Controlling Ministry may make rules as to the transmission of articles by post.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may—

(a) specify articles which may not be transmitted by post;

(b) prescribe conditions on which articles may be transmitted by post;

(c) provide for the detention and disposal of articles in course of transmission by post in contravention of rules made under clause (a) or clause (b);

(d) provide for the granting of receipts for, and the granting and obtaining of certificates of, posting and delivery of postal articles and the sums to be paid, in addition to any other postage, for such receipts and certificates; and regulate covers, forms, dimensions, maximum weights, and enclosures, and the use of postal articles, other than letters, for making communications.

(3) Postal articles shall be posted and delivered at such times and in such manner as the Director General may, by order, from time to time appoint.

86. Power to make rules as to insurance.—(1) The Controlling Ministry may make rules as to the insurance of postal articles.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may—

(a) declare what classes of postal articles may be insured under section 30;

(b) fix the limit of the amount for which postal articles may be insured; and
(c) prescribe the manner in which the fees for insurance shall be paid.

Postal articles made over to the Post Office for the purpose of being insured shall be delivered, when insured, at such places and times and in such manner as the Director General may, by order, from time to time appoint.

87. Power to make rules as to value-payable postal articles.—(1) The Controlling Ministry may make rules as to the transmission by post of value-payable postal articles.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may—

(a) declare what classes of postal articles may be sent as value-payable postal articles;

(b) direct that no postal article shall be so sent unless the sender declares that it is sent in execution of a bonafide order received by him;

(c) limit the value to be recovered on the delivery of any value-payable postal article;

(d) prescribe the form of declaration to be made by the senders of value-payable postal articles, and the time and manner of the payment of fees;

(e) provide for the retention and repayment to the addressee in cases of fraud of money recovered on the delivery of any value-payable postal article; and

(f) prescribe the fees to be charged for inquiries into complaints regarding the delivery of or payment for value-payable postal articles.

(2) Postal articles shall be made over to the Post Office for the purpose of being sent as “value-payable” and shall be delivered, when so sent, at such times and in such manner as the Director General may, by order, from time to time appoint.

(3) No suit or other legal proceeding shall be instituted against the Controlling Ministry or any officer of the Post Office in respect of anything done, or in good faith purporting to be done, under any rule made under clause (e) of sub-section (2).
88. Power to maintain money order system and to make rules as to remittances thereby.—(1) The Controlling Ministry may provide for the remitting of small sums of money through the Post Office by means of money orders, and may make rules as to such money orders.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may prescribe—

(a) the limit of amount for which money orders may be issued;

(b) the period during which money orders shall remain current; and

(c) the rates of commission or the fees to be charged on money orders or in respect thereof.

89. Repeal and Saving.—(1) The Post Office Act, 1898 (VI of 1898), hereinafter referred to as the said Law, is hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal of the said Act and without prejudice to section 24 of the General Clauses Act, 1987 (X of 1987);

(a) the Pakistan Post Office constituted under the said Law and functioning immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, discharge the functions of and be deemed to be, the Post Office established under this Act;

(b) any scheme of reciprocity settled under the said Law and subsisting immediately before the commencement of this Act shall continue in force and be deemed to be a scheme of reciprocity settled under this Act;

(c) any register of the Postal Services which was maintained immediately before the commencement of this Act under the said Law and the persons registered in such register shall be deemed to be the register maintained and persons registered therein under this Act;

(d) any qualification entered as a supplementary qualification in any register under the said Law shall be deemed to be the supplementary qualification entered in the register under this Act, notwithstanding that such qualification is not a recognized higher qualification;

(e) any regulation or bye-law made under the said Law and in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to be and continue in force as, a regulation made under this Act;
(f) any officer or other employee of the Pakistan Post Office appointed under the said Law shall be deemed to be an officer or employee appointed by the Post Office under this Act;
