  - (iii) makes a false or misleading representation concerning the services; and
- (B) the developer permits the publication of any advertisement or prospectus whether in any newspaper or otherwise of services that are not intended to be offered;
- (d) the developer indulges in any fraudulent practices.

(2) The registration granted to the developer under section 5 shall not be revoked unless the Authority has given to the developer not less than thirty days notice, in writing, stating the grounds on which it is proposed to revoke the registration, and has considered any cause shown by the developer within the period of that notice against the proposed revocation.

(3) The Authority may, instead of revoking the registration under sub-section (1), permit it to remain in force subject to such further terms and conditions as it thinks fit to impose in the interest of the allottees, and any such terms and conditions so imposed shall be binding upon the developer.

(4) The Authority, upon the revocation of the registration,—

- (a) shall debar the developer from accessing its website in relation to that project and specify his name in the list of defaulters and display his photograph on its website and also inform the public about such revocation or registration;
- (b) shall facilitate the remaining development works to be carried out in accordance with the approved proposal;
- (c) shall direct all the banks holding the project bank account of the Developer, to immediately freeze the account, and thereafter provide an opportunity of hearing within seven working days and take such further necessary actions, including consequent de-freezing of the said account, towards facilitating the remaining development works; and
- (d) may, to protect the interest of allottees or in the public interest, issue such directions as it may deem necessary.

8. Obligation of Authority consequent upon lapse of or on revocation of registration of a Developer.—Upon lapse of the registration or on revocation of the registration under this Act, the Authority, may consult the Federal Government to take such action as it may deem fit including the carrying out of the remaining development works by an authority empowered by law or by the association of allottees or in any other manner, as may be determined by the Authority:

Provided that no direction, decision or order of the Authority under this section shall take effect until the expiry of the period of appeal provided under the provisions of this Act:

Provided further that in case of revocation of registration of a project under this Act, the association of allottees shall have the first right of refusal for carrying out of the remaining development works.

9. Registration of real estate agents.—(1) No real estate agent shall facilitate the sale or purchase of or act on behalf of any person to facilitate the sale or purchase of any plot, apartment or building, as the case may be, in a real estate project or part of it, being the part of the real estate project registered under section 3, being sold by the developer in any planning area, without obtaining registration under this section.

(2) Every real estate agent shall make an application to the prescribed Authority for registration in such form, manner, within such time and accompanied by such fee and documents as may be prescribed by the Islamabad Real Estate Agents and Motor Vehicle Ordinance, 1984.

(3) The Authority shall, within such period, in such manner and upon satisfying itself of the fulfillment of such conditions, as may be prescribed—

- (a) grant a single general registration to the real estate agent for two years which can be renewed after every two years; Or
- (b) grant a single registration to the real estate agent for a particular project; or
- (c) reject the application for reasons to be recorded in writing, if such application does not conform to the provisions of the Act or the rules or regulations made thereunder:

Provided that no application shall be rejected unless the applicant has been given an opportunity of being heard in the matter.

(4) Whereon the completion of the period specified under sub-section (3), if the applicant does not receive any communication about the deficiencies in his application or the rejection of his application, he shall be deemed to have been registered.

(5) Every real estate agent who is registered as per the provisions of this Act or the rules and regulations made thereunder, shall be granted a registration number by the Authority, which shall be quoted by the real estate agent in every sale facilitated by him under this Act.

(6) Every registration shall be valid for such period as may be prescribed, and shall be renewable for a period in such manner and on payment of such fee as may be prescribed.

(7) Where any real estate agent who has been granted registration under this Act commits breach of any of the conditions thereof or any other terms and conditions specified under this Act or any rules or regulations made thereunder, or if there is any complaint against a real estate agent or where the Authority is satisfied that such registration has been secured by the real estate agent through misrepresentation or fraud, the Authority may, without prejudice to any other provisions under this Act, revoke the registration or suspend the same for such period as it thinks fit:

Provided that no such revocation or suspension shall be made by the Authority unless an opportunity of being heard has been given to the real estate agent.

10. Functions of real estate agents.—Every real estate agent registered under section 9 shall—

- (a) not facilitate the sale or purchase of any plot, apartment or building, as the case may be, in a real estate project or part of it, being sold by the developer in any planning area, which is not registered with the Authority;
- (b) maintain and preserve such books of account, records and documents as may be prescribed;
- (c) not involve himself in any unfair trade practices, namely:—
  - (i) the practice of making any statement, whether orally or in writing or by visible representation which—
    - (A) falsely represents that the services are of a particular standard or grade;
    - (B) represents any approval or affiliation which the agent or the developer does not have; and
    - (C) makes a false or misleading representation concerning the services;
  - (ii) permitting the publication of any advertisement whether in any newspaper or otherwise of services that are not intended to be offered.
