3. The promotion to posts in Column 2 below in BPS-14 and above shall be made by the selection on merit subject to qualifying the departmental promotional examination (DPE) and to BPS 11-13 on seniority-\textit{cum}-fitness subject to qualifying the DPE and in BPS 10 and below on seniority-\textit{cum}-fitness, from amongst the persons who hold the posts specified in column 3 on regular basis and possess the qualification, service and other eligibility conditions prescribed in column 4. The eligible period (minimum service) for promotion defined in column 4 for each post is amended as per following details:—

(a) For promotion upto BPS-9: Eligibility Period (minimum service) of 02 years per BPS shall continue.

(b) For promotion BPS 10-16: Eligibility Period (minimum service) of 04 years per BPS (i.e. multiple of 04 years x No of BPSs to be promoted in case of more than one BPS promotion) shall be followed instead of existing Service period defined in column 4.

(c) In cases with gap of more than one BPS promotion, which spread across both the groups stated in para 3(a) and (b) above, cumulative minimum service as per applicable group shall be counted for promotion.

(d) The amended Eligibility Period (minimum service) for promotion shall be applicable to all posts except Ministerial staff (Superintendent, Assistant / Sect Assistant, UDC, LDC) and Security Supervisors post (BPS-16, BPS-14, BPS-09) for promotion boards to be held on or after 01 Jan., 2021. The amendment would also be applicable to promotion rules approved by the PAC Board, \textit{vide} SRO 262(I)/2012 and thereafter.”
