CHAPTER-II

GEOGRAPHICAL INDICATION REGISTRY

3. Geographical Indications Registry.—(1) For the purposes of this Act, the concerned Division shall establish a Geographical Indications Registry under the management and control of IPO Pakistan. The Trade Marks Registry and its branches established under the Trade Marks Ordinance, 2001(XIX of 2001) shall carry out functions of the Geographical Indications Registry and its branches till such time a separate GI Registry is established under this Act.

(2) The GI Registry shall maintain a register of record to be called the register of geographical indications. GI Register shall be maintained at Trade Marks Registry for the time being and shall be handed over and transferred to the GI Registry once it has been established under this Act.

(3) For the facilitation of applicants, the IPO Pakistan with the prior approval of Policy Board may set up offices of the Registry at such places, as deems necessary, as and when required.

(4) The Geographical Indications Registry shall have its own seal.

4. Registrar geographical indications and other functionaries.—The IPO Pakistan may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint an officer who shall serve as the Registrar:

Provided that the Registrar of Trade Marks, appointed under sub-section (1) of section 7 of the Trade Marks Ordinance, 2001 (XIX of 2001) shall perform the functions of Registrar Geographical Indications till the appointment of an officer as Registrar under this section, to carry out his functions under this Act:

Provided further that the appointment of Registrar under this section shall be made within three hundred and sixty days after the commencement of this Act.

5. Delegation of Authority of the Registrar.—(1) The IPO Pakistan shall with the prior approval of the Policy Board appoint one or more deputy registrars and assistant registrars for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Under direction of IPO Pakistan, the Registrar may delegate its powers to the deputy registrars and assistant registrars who shall discharge such functions of the Registrar under this Act as the Registrar may delegate from time to time.

(3) Any reference in this Act to the Registrar shall include a reference to any deputy registrar or assistant registrar in the discharge of such functions.

(4) IPO Pakistan may authorize the Registrar to delegate any function of the Registrar to any other officers of the GI Registry other than the deputy and assistant registrars.

6. Register of geographical indication.—(1) There shall be kept at each branch, a copy of the register of geographical indication which shall contain all registered geographical indications with names, addresses and descriptions of the registrants, the names and addresses and descriptions of authorized users and such registers may be maintained wholly or partly in electronic form. The register shall be open for inspection of the public at all convenient times in the same manner as the originals thereof.

(2) The register shall contain list of registrants and authorized users of geographical indications.

(3) The register shall be divided into two Parts called respectively Part A and Part B.

(4) The particulars relating to the registration of the registrant of geographical indications shall be incorporated and included in Part A of the register in the prescribed manner.

(5) The particulars relating to the registration of the authorized users shall be incorporated and included in Part B of the register in the prescribed manner.

CHAPTER-III

REGISTRATION OF GEOGRAPHICAL INDICATION

7. Registration of registrant of geographical indication.—(1) Registration of proprietor of geographical indication of any or all goods subject to definite territory of a country shall comprise of such class of goods as may be classified by the Registrar in accordance with the international classification of goods for the purposes of registration of geographical indications.

8. Prohibition of registration of a geographical indication.—(1) An indication shall not be registered as a geographical indication,—

- (i) which does not correspond to the definition of geographical indication contained in clause (vii) of sub-section (1) of section 2; or
- (ii) the use of which is likely to deceive or cause confusion; or
- (iii) which is not or has ceased to be protected in its country of origin; or
- (iv) which has fallen into disuse in that country; or
- (v) which is determined by the Registrar to be a generic name or an indication; or
- (vi) which is opposed to morality or public policy.

9. Registration of homonymous geographical indication.—(1) A homonymous geographical indication is entitled to be considered for registration under this Act.

(2) Prior to registration under sub-section (1) the Registrar shall satisfy himself that he has considered—

- (i) all practical conditions under which the homonymous indication in question shall be differentiated from other homonymous indication;
- (ii) equitable treatment of the producers of the goods concerned; and
- (iii) that the consumers of such goods shall not be confused or misled in consequence of such registration.

Explanation.—Homonymous geographical indications (GI) are those that are spelled or pronounced alike, but which identify products originating in different places, usually in different countries. In principle, these indications should coexist, but such coexistence may be subject to certain conditions. For example, it may be required that they be used only together with additional information as to the origin of the product in order to prevent consumers from being misled. A GI may be refused protection if, due to the existence of another homonymous indication, its use would be considered potentially misleading to consumers with regard to the product's true origin.

10. Registration of foreign geographical indication.—(1) A geographical indication of a foreign country shall be registered in the Islamic Republic of Pakistan as long as it is registered in accordance with the local legislation in its country of origin. The title and date of the legislative or administrative provisions or of judicial decisions regarding protection to the geographical indication in the country of origin shall be considered for accepting foreign GI application.

(2) The Registry shall not allow the registration of a foreign Geographical Indication which is not or has ceased to be protected in its country of origin or which has fallen into disuse in that country.

(3) The application for registration of foreign geographical indication shall be made at the Registry by its legal representative in Pakistan.

(4) During the registration procedure, the Registry may require the applicant or its legal representative to submit any information related to registration in the country of origin which may affect its registration in Pakistan.

CHAPTER-IV

PROCEDURE FOR REGISTRATION OF REGISTRANT OF GI

11. Right to own and register geographical indication.—(1) The Federal Government shall be the holder and exclusive owner of all the geographical indications of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan.

(2) The Federal Government may allow any statutory body, public body, local or provincial administration, government enterprise or any government organization which is a juristic person having area of responsibility covering the geographical indications in the territory of Islamic Republic of Pakistan to apply for and register the product as a geographical indication as a registrant in such form, manner and accompanied by such fees as may be prescribed.

(3) When a product bearing geographical indication is registered at the Registry in accordance with the provisions of this Act, such producers or operators whose practices are in compliance with the book of specification shall have the right to use the geographical indication as authorized users. The producers or operators, with the formal assent of the Registrant, shall apply to the Registry for obtaining registration as authorized users.

(4) The concerned Division shall be responsible for conciliating any conflicts and engage in advocacy in relation to drafting of book of specification during pre-registration phase of geographical indications.

(5) The concerned Division shall regulate cooperation agreement with organizations to enable pre-registration processes of geographical indication and facilitate in arranging consultations with producers and operators in drafting book of specification.

12. Content of Application for registration of geographical indication.—(1) The application for registration of a geographical indication by the Applicant shall contain the following documents for registration, namely:—

- (i) name and address of applicant filing the application;
- (ii) geographical indication for which registration is sought;
- (iii) class of goods to which the geographical indication shall apply;
- (iv) geographical area to which the geographical indication applies and a map of that area;

- (v) title and date of the legislative or administrative provisions or of judicial decisions regarding the protection to the geographical indication in the qualifying country of origin;
- (vi) statement of such particulars in relation to the producers or operators of the concerned goods, if any;
- (vii) goods for which the geographical indication applies;
- (viii) quality, reputation or other characteristics of the goods, geographical origin and other details as may be prescribed for which the geographical indication is used;
- (ix) book of specifications containing product standards or product specifications; and
- (x) such other particulars as may be prescribed and shall be subject to the payment of prescribed fee.

(2) In addition to other factors, the reputation of products may also be determined on the basis of their being widely known to and selected by consumers.

(3) The quality and characteristics of products of geographical indication shall be defined by one or several qualitative, quantitative or physically, chemically, microbiologically perceptible criteria which can be tested by technical means or experts with appropriate testing methods as may be prescribed.

13. Conformity of geographical indication with book of specification.—

(1) The concerned Division, by notification in the official Gazette shall designate a certification body to guarantee, inspect, test and monitor quality, reputation or other characteristics of products seeking registration of geographical indications in a prescribed manner.

(2) The designated certification body shall confirm the specifications identified in the book of specifications from accredited confirmatory assessment bodies or research institutes or impartial public authority or public organization or organization approved by concerned Division for this purpose.

(3) In case there is non-compliance with the book of specifications by the producers or operators as authorized users of registered geographical indication, following measures may be adopted by the certification body, namely:—

- (i) notice served to the authorized user for non-compliance;
- (ii) warning made to the producer or operator or authorized user;
- (iii) in case no remedial action is taken within reasonable time, temporary disqualification of the rights to use the geographical indication by the producer or operator or authorized user by making an application to the Registrar; and
- (iv) application to the Registrar for suspension or cancellation of the rights to use the geographical indication by the non-compliant authorized user.

(4) The Registrar may approve the suspension after investigation and scrutiny as deemed fit.

(5) The cost of such confirmation of compliance with the book of specifications shall be borne by the authorized users. The registrant may contribute to these costs as the case may be.

14. Technical assistance of experts.—The Registrar may, if so require, be assisted in technical aspects in various fields such as geology or meteorology involved in any case by any expert who has experience and expertise in the matter in order to consider or make a decision or ascertain the correctness of the particulars furnished in the application.

15. Examination for registration.—(1) The Registrar shall cause the application to be examined to determine whether it fulfills the criteria and other requirements.

(2) In examining the application, the Registrar may call the applicant or any person concerned to give explanation or furnish additional evidence to him. Where it is necessary to have opinion of an expert in the field related to matter under consideration, the Registrar shall send the matter to the expert for his consideration and opinion in the prescribed manner.

16. Grant of registration of registrant.—(1) When an application for registration of a geographical indication has been accepted, the Registrar shall register the registrant of the product bearing geographical indication mentioned in the application and the geographical indication shall stand registered from the date of making of said application and it shall be deemed to be the date of registration.

(2) On the registration of a geographical indication, the Registrar shall issue to the registrant, a certificate in such form as may be prescribed, sealed with the seal of the Registry.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Registrar may accept an application absolutely or subject to such amendments, modifications, conditions or limitations, if any, as he may deem fit.

(4) In case of conditional acceptance of application, the Registrar shall record in writing the grounds for such conditional acceptance and the reasons to be recorded in writing for arriving at such decision.

(5) The Registrar may amend the register or a certificate of registration for the purpose of correcting a clerical error or an obvious mistake.

17. Application for registration of authorized user.—(1) Any natural or juristic person or group of persons claiming to be an operator, producer or group of producers interested in the right to use registered geographical indication, may apply in writing to the Registrar subject to the formal assent of the registrant in the prescribed manner for registering him as an authorized user of such geographical indication.

(2) The application under sub-section (1) shall be accompanied by a statement confirming compliance with the book of specifications and such documents of facts as may be prescribed and required by the Registrar to determine as to whether such person is the producer or operator of the goods referred to in the application and such fee as may be prescribed.

(3) The Registrar shall cause the application to be examined to determine whether it fulfills the criteria and other requirements.

(4) In examining the application, the Registrar may call the applicant or any person concerned to give explanation or furnish additional evidence to him.

(5) Where registration of a geographical indication as authorized user, is not completed within twelve months from the date of the application by reason of default on the part of the applicant, the Registrar may, after giving notice to the applicant in the prescribed manner, treat the application as abandoned unless it is completed within the time specified.

18. Withdrawal of acceptance.—(1) Where, after the acceptance of an application for registration of an authorized user of geographical indication but before its registration, the Registrar is satisfied,—

- (i) that the application has been accepted in error; or
- (ii) that in circumstances of the case the application for use of geographical indication should not be registered; or

- (iii) that it should be registered subject to conditions or limitations; or
- (iv) that it should be registered subject to conditions, additional to or other than the conditions or limitations subject to which the application has been accepted, he may, after hearing the applicant, if he so desires, withdraw the acceptance and proceed as if the application had not been accepted.

19. Advertisement.—(1) When an application for registration of an authorized user of the product bearing geographical indication has been accepted, whether absolutely or subject to conditions or limitations, the Registrar shall advertise that application immediately in such manner as may be prescribed.

- (2) Where after the advertisement of an application,—
 - (i) an error in the application has been corrected; or
 - (ii) the application has been permitted to be amended, the Registrar in his discretion may either cause the application to be advertised afresh, a new or may notify such correction which has been made in the application in the prescribed manner.

20. Opposition to registration.—(1) Within a period of three months from the date of advertisement or re-advertisement of the application for registration of authorized user of a product bearing geographical indication, any interested person may give to the Registrar notice of opposition in writing in prescribed manner for opposition to the registration.

(2) This notice of opposition under sub-section (1) shall be made in such manner and on payment of such fee as may be prescribed.

(3) The Registrar shall serve a copy of the notice of opposition to the Applicant for registration as authorized user and within two months from the receipt by the applicant of the notice of opposition, the applicant shall send to the Registrar in the prescribed manner a counter-statement of the grounds on which he relies for his application and if he does not do so, he shall be deemed to have abandoned the application.

(4) Within two months from the receipt of copy of notice of opposition, the applicant may send a counter-statement of the grounds on which he relies upon to the Registrar in the prescribed manner.

(5) If he fails to do so in the prescribed time limit he shall be deemed to have abandoned the application.

(6) If the applicant sends such counter-statement, the Registrar shall cause a copy thereof to be served on the person giving notice of opposition.

(7) Any evidence upon which the opponent and the applicant may rely shall be submitted in such manner and within such time as may be prescribed to the Registrar, and the Registrar shall give an opportunity to them to be heard, if they so desire.

(8) After hearing the parties, considering the evidence and taking into account ground of objection whether relied upon by the opponent or not, the Registrar shall decide whether the registration is to be permitted absolutely or subject to conditions or limitations, if any, or not to be permitted.

(9) If any party does not appear for hearing, the Registrar may ex parte decide on the notice of opposition on merits, upon consideration of the evidence available on record.

(10) Where a person giving notice of opposition or an applicant sending a counter statement neither resides nor carries on business in Pakistan, the Registrar may require him to give security for the costs of proceeding before him.

(11) The Registrar may, on request, permit correction of any error or any amendment in a notice of opposition or a counter-statement in the prescribed manner.

21. Extension of time.—(1) If the Registrar is satisfied, on application made to him in the prescribed manner and accompanied by the prescribed fee, that there is sufficient cause for extending the time for doing any act not being a time expressly provided in this Act, whether the time so specified has expired or not, he may subject to such conditions as he may think fit to impose, extend the time and inform the parties accordingly.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1), shall be deemed to require the Registrar to hear the parties before disposing of an application for extension of time and no appeal shall lie from any order of the Registrar under this section.

22. Correction and Amendment.—(1) The Registrar may, at any time, whether before or after acceptance of an application for registration, permit the correction of any error or permit an amendment of the application.

23. Grant of registration of an authorized user.—(1) Where the Registrar finds that conditions provided for in this Act are fulfilled and either—

- (i) the registration of an authorized user has not been opposed within the prescribed time limit; or

- (ii) the authorized user has provided statement affirming compliance with the book of specifications; or
- (iii) the registration of the authorized user has been opposed by notice and the opposition has been decided in the Applicant's favour; or
- (iv) no appeal has been filed against the Registrar's decision for registration as an authorized user, the Registrar shall, unless the concerned Division otherwise directs, register the said authorized users mentioned in the application.

(2) The authorized users, when registered under sub-section (1), shall be registered from the date of filing of said application.

(3) The Registrar shall issue a certificate of the registration to the authorized users bearing the seal of the Registry and shall publish a reference to the said registration in the prescribed manner.

(4) The Registrar may amend the register for addition, correction or omission of entries relating to authorized users.

(5) Where an application is made by any aggrieved person or any legal person or an organization or designated certification body or registrant that an authorized user is dealing with a registered geographical indication in a manner which is detrimental to the public interest at large and in non-compliance of book of specifications and the Registrar is satisfied according to all legal considerations contained in this Act, he may pass an order for rectification of the register or cancel the registration as he may deem legally fit.

(6) Such orders of the Registrar shall be binding on all the parties including the aggrieved party or authorized user, provided that appeal against the Registrar's decision shall lie to the High Court.

24. Regulatory mechanism for registered geographical indication.—

(1) The procedure for inspection and monitoring shall be prepared by concerned Division for regulatory mechanism including scope, frequency, and procedures of monitoring activities and penalties to ensure the compliance of geographical indication products with the book of specification.

(2) The use of registered geographical indication by the authorized users shall be subject to compliance with the book of specification.

(3) IPO Pakistan shall facilitate in promotion, marketing and effective use of products bearing geographical indications.

(4) The designated certification body conforming product specification and product standards of geographical indication goods shall present an annual report to the concerned Division at the end of each calendar year containing a list of authorized users including but not limited to goods, quantity and quality acknowledged and actions taken against non-compliance of the book of specification.

(5) Concerned Division shall oversee the efficiency of the designated certification body or bodies.

25. Duration, renewal, removal and restoration of registration.—

(1) The registration of a Registrant of geographical indication shall be perpetual.

(2) The registration of an authorized user shall be for a period of ten years.

(3) The Registrar shall, on application made in the prescribed manner, by the authorized user, within the prescribed period and subject to the payment of the prescribed fee, renew the registration of the authorized user, for a period of ten years from the date of expiration of the original registration or of the last renewal of registration, as the case may be (which date is in this section referred to as the expiration of the last registration).

(4) At the prescribed time, before the expiration of the last registration of the authorized user, the Registrar shall send notice in prescribed manner to the authorized user regarding the date of expiration and the conditions as to payment of fees and otherwise upon which a renewal of registration may be obtained, and, if at the expiration of time prescribed in the notice, the said conditions are not been duly complied, the Registrar may remove the authorized user from the register:

Provided that the Registrar shall not remove the authorized user from the register, if an application is made in the prescribed form and the prescribed fee and surcharge is paid within six months from the expiration of the last registration of the authorized user, as the case may be, and shall renew the registration of the authorized user for a period of ten years.

(5) Where an authorized user has been removed from the register for non-payment of the prescribed fee, the Registrar shall, after six months and within one year from the expiration of the last registration of the authorized user, on receipt of an application in the prescribed form and on payment of the prescribed fee, if satisfied that it is just so to do, restore the authorized user, as the case may be, to the register and renew registration of authorized user, either generally or subject to such condition or limitation as he thinks fit to impose, for a period of ten years from the expiration of the last registration.

CHAPTER- V

RIGHTS CONFERRED BY REGISTRATION OF GEOGRAPHICAL INDICATION

26. Rights conferred by registration.—(1) The registration of a geographical indication shall give,—

- (i) to the registrant of the geographical indication and the authorized user to get relief in respect of infringement of the registered geographical indication;
- (ii) to the authorized user, the exclusive right to use the geographical indication in relation to the goods in respect of which the geographical indication is registered;
- (iii) right to take action against an infringer or counterfeiter; and
- (iv) right to prevent the use of a registered geographical indication by any person in any manner in relation to the concerned products to which the geographical indication relates.

(2) National Geographical Indication logo along with registered name of product and any other mark and detail shall appear on the label of marketed products in a prescribed manner.

29. Registration to be prima facie evidence of validity.—(1) In all legal proceedings relating to a geographical indication, the certificate of registration granted under this Act, being a copy of the entry in the register under the seal of the Geographical Indications Registry, shall be prima facie evidence of the validity thereof and be admissible in all courts without further proof or production of the original.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect right of action in respect of an unregistered geographical indication.

CHAPTER- VI

INFRINGEMENT OF REGISTERED GEOGRAPHICAL INDICATION

30. Infringement of geographical indication.—(1) A person shall infringe a registered geographical indication if such person uses a geographical indication which is identical with the registered geographical indication.

(2) A person shall infringe a registered geographical indication, if such person uses it in the course of trade on following grounds, namely:—

- (i) the use of a geographical indication in respect of goods of the same or similar description but not originating in the country indicated by the geographical indication in question or the true place of origin of the goods is falsely indicated or the geographical indication is used in translation or accompanied by expressions such as “kind”, “type”, “style”, “imitation” used in such a manner which misleads the persons as to the geographical origin of such goods; or
- (ii) any use of a geographical indication that, even if it identifies goods truly originating in the place designated by that geographical indication, designates products that do not comply with the relevant book of specification as recorded on the register shall be deemed as an infringement; or
- (iii) the mark is deceptively similar to the geographical indication and there exists a likelihood of confusion on the part of public, which includes the likelihood of association with the geographical indication.

31. When a geographical indication is not infringed.—(1) A person shall not infringe a registered geographical indication when the—

- (i) person uses it in good faith; or
- (ii) person’s name or the name of the person’s place of business is used but such use does not result in a likelihood of confusion or otherwise interfere with an existing geographical indication; or
- (iii) name of the predecessor in business of the person or the name of the predecessor’s place of business is used;

- (iv) person uses the geographical indication in good faith to indicate the intended purpose of goods, in particular as accessories or spare parts, or services; or
- (v) person uses the geographical indication for the purposes of comparative advertising.

CHAPTER- VII

INFRINGEMENT PROCEEDINGS

32. Action for infringement.—(1) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, an infringement of a registered geographical indication shall be actionable by the holder or registrant and the authorized user of the geographical indication.

(2) In an action for infringement all such relief by way of damages, injunctions, accounts or otherwise shall be available to the holder or registrant and the authorized user of the geographical indication as is available in respect of the infringement of any other property right.

(3) Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to affect rights of action against any person for passing off goods as the goods of another person or the remedies in respect thereof.

33. Infringement of unregistered geographical indications.—(1) No proceedings to prevent, or recover damages for, infringement of an unregistered geographical indication shall be instituted by any person.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall be deemed to affect rights of action against any person for passing off goods as goods of another person or any remedies available therein.

34. Infringement proceedings.—(1) No person shall be entitled to institute any proceeding to recover damages for an unregistered geographical indication.

(2) Any interested person and any interested group of producers or consumers may institute proceedings in the IP Tribunal to prevent infringement in respect of a registered geographical indication.

(3) Following use of registered geographical indication shall constitute infringement,—

- (i) use in the designation or presentation of a good that indicates or suggests that the goods in question originates in a geographical

- area other than the true place of origin in a manner which misleads the public as to the geographical origin of the goods; or
- (ii) use which constitutes an act of unfair competition within the meaning of Article 10 bis of the Paris Convention; or
 - (iii) use of a geographical indication in respect of goods of the same or similar description but not originating in the place indicated by the geographical indication in question, even where the true origin of the goods is indicated or the geographical indication is used in translation or accompanied by expressions such as “kind”, “type”, “style”, “imitation” or the like; or
 - (iv) use of a geographical indication that, even if it identifies goods truly originating in the place designated by that geographical indication, designates goods that do not comply with the relevant specification as recorded on the register.
- (4) The relief which a court may grant in any suit for infringement under this section may include —
- (i) an injunction and confiscation of the products; and
 - (ii) damages or share in the profits at the option of the plaintiff.

35. Suits for infringement to be instituted before IP Tribunals.—

(1) No suit in matters relating to infringement of a geographical indication or otherwise relating to any right in a geographical indication shall be instituted in any other court except an IP Tribunal.

36. Order for erasure of offending mark.—(1) Where a person is found to have infringed a registered geographical indication, the High Court or an IP Tribunal may make an order requiring him—

- (i) to cause the offending geographical indication to be erased, removed or obliterated from any infringing goods, material or articles in his possession, custody or control; or
 - (ii) to secure the destruction of the infringing goods, material or articles, if it is not reasonably practicable for the offending geographical indication to be erased, removed or obliterated.
- (2) If an order under sub-section (1) is not complied with or it appears to the High Court or IP Tribunal, as the case may be, that such an order may not be complied with, the High Court or IP Tribunal may order that infringement goods, material or articles be delivered to such person and may further direct for erasure, removal or obliteration of the mark or for destruction, as the case may be.

37. Infringing goods, material or articles.—(1) Subject to sub-section (2), goods shall be infringement goods in relation to a geographical indication, if those or packaging thereof bear a mark identical or deceptively similar to that mark and—

- (i) application of the mark to the goods or packaging thereof was an infringement of the registered geographical indication;
- (ii) the goods are proposed to be imported into Pakistan and application of the mark in Pakistan to those or packing thereof is an infringement of the registered geographical indication; or
- (iii) the mark otherwise been used in relation to the goods in such a way as to infringe the registered geographical indication.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be construed as affecting the importation of goods which may be lawfully imported into Pakistan.

(3) Material shall be infringing material in relation to a registered geographical indication, if it bears a mark identical or deceptively similar to that mark and either it is,—

- (i) used for labeling or packaging goods as a business paper or for advertising goods, in such a way as to infringe the registered geographical indication; or
- (ii) intended to be so used and such use would infringe the registered geographical indication.

(4) Infringing articles in relation to a registered geographical indication means such articles which—

- (i) are specifically designed or adapted for making copies of a mark identical or similar to that mark; and
- (ii) a person has in his possession, custody or control, knowing or having reason to believe that those have been or are to be used to produce infringing goods or material.

38. Order as to disposal of infringing goods, material or articles.—
(1) Where infringing goods, material or articles have been confiscated, an application may be made to the High Court or IP Tribunal,—

- (i) for an order that those be destroyed or forfeited; or
- (ii) for a decision that no such order may be made.

(2) In considering what order, if any, should be made, the IP Tribunal shall consider whether other remedies available in an action for infringement of the registered geographical indication may be adequate to compensate the aggrieved party and protect their interests.

(3) Where there are more persons than one interested in the goods, materials or articles, the IP Tribunal shall make such order as it thinks just.

(4) If the IP Tribunal decides that no order should be made under this section, then the person, in possession of the goods shall be entitled to retain them.

CHAPTER-VIII

PENALTIES AND PROCEDURES

39. Meaning of applying Geographical Indications.—(1) A person shall be deemed to apply a geographical indication for goods who—

- (i) applies to the goods themselves or uses it in relation to goods;
- (ii) applies to any package in or with which the goods are sold or exposed for sale or had in possession for sale or for any purpose of trade or manufacture; or
- (iii) places, encloses or annexes any goods which are goods which are sold or exposed for sale or had in possession for sale or for any purpose of trade or manufacture in or with any package or other thing to which a trade description has been applied; or

(2) A geographical indication shall be deemed to be applied to goods whether it is woven in, impressed on, otherwise worked into or annexed or affixed to the goods or to any packaging or other thing.

40. False application of geographical indication.—(1) A person shall falsely apply geographical indication if such person uses in the course of trade a geographical indication which—

- (i) is used without the consent of the registrant or authorized user of geographical indication makes the geographical indication or deceptively similar geographical indication; or
- (ii) falsifies any genuine geographical indication, whether by alteration, addition, effacement or otherwise; or
- (iii) where the geographical indication is a well-known geographical indication or has a reputation in Pakistan and the use of the Geographical Indication being without due cause, takes unfair advantage of or is detrimental to the distinctive character or the repute of the geographical indication; or
- (iv) uses such registered geographical indication as his trade name or part of his trade name; or
- (v) uses such registered geographical indication as his domain name or part of his domain name or obtains such domain name without consent of the proprietor of the registered geographical indication, with the intention of selling such domain name to another including the proprietor of the registered geographical indication; or
- (vi) uses any package bearing a geographical indication which is identical with or deceptively similar to the geographical indication of such registrant or authorized user, for the purpose of packing, filling or wrapping therein any goods other than the genuine goods of the authorized user of the geographical indication.

(2) Any geographical indication falsely applied as mentioned in subsection (1), is in this Act referred to as a false geographical indication.

(3) In all legal proceedings, a person who sells or offers goods for sale or puts those on the market or has in possession for sale or any purpose of trade or manufacture any goods bearing a mark which infringes a registered geographical indication, the burden of proving the consent of the registrant or authorized user shall lie on the accused and be treated as a party to infringement of a registered geographical indication, unless he proves that,—

- (i) having taken all reasonable precautions, he had reasons to suspect the genuineness of the geographical indication;
- (ii) on demand made by IP Tribunal or High Court, as the case may be, he gave all the information in his power with respect to the persons from whom he obtained such goods; and
- (iii) he had otherwise acted innocently.

41. Penalty for applying false geographical indication, etc.—(1)
Any person who,—

- (i) falsely applies geographical indication to goods; or
- (ii) applies to any goods to which an indication of the country or place in which they were made or produced or the name and address of manufacture or person for whom the goods are manufactured is required
- (iii) tampers with, alters or effaces an indication of origin which has been applied to any goods; or
- (iv) causes any of the aforementioned things to be done, shall, unless he proves that he acted without intent to defraud, shall be punished with imprisonment of either description for a term which shall not be less than six months but which may extend to three years, or with fine which shall not be less than ten hundred thousand rupees, or with both.

42. Penalty of falsely representing a geographical indication as registered.—(1) No person shall make any representation—

- (i) with respect to a mark not being a registered geographical indication to the effect that it is a registered geographical indication;
- (ii) with respect to a part of a registered geographical indication not being a part separately registered as a geographical indication, to the effect that it is separately registered as a geographical indication;
- (iii) to the effect that a registered geographical indication is registered in respect of any goods in respect of which it is not, in fact, registered; or
- (iv) to the effect that the registration of a geographical indication gives an exclusive right to the use thereof in any circumstances in which,

having regard to limitations entered on the register, the registration does not, in fact, give that right.

(2) If any person contravenes any of the provisions of sub-section (1), he shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than one month but which may extend to six months, or with fine which shall not be less than five hundred thousand rupees, or with both.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the use in Pakistan in relation to a geographical indication of the word “registered”, or of any other expression referring whether expressly or impliedly to registration, shall be deemed to import a reference to registration in the register, except,—

- (i) where that other expression is of itself such as to indicate that the reference is to such registration as is mentioned in clause (i); or
- (ii) where that word is used in relation to a mark registered as a geographical indication under the laws of a country other than Pakistan and in relation solely to goods to be exported to that country.

(4) The Registrar may, either himself or upon a complaint in writing made to him, call upon any person who is allegedly contravening any of the provisions of clauses (i) to (iii) of sub-section (1) to show cause as to why action should not be taken against him:

Provided that power of the Registrar shall be limited to the imposition of fine as provided under sub-section (2), in addition he may refuse the application for registration of the geographical indication if his application for registration of GI as authorized user is pending. In case the authorized user of geographical indication is registered, Registrar may order invalidation of the registration or any combination thereof, as the case may be.

CHAPTER-IX

PROHIBITION ON ASSIGNMENT AND TRANSMISSION

43. Prohibition on transfer etc.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force, any right to a registered geographical indication shall not be the subject matter of assignment, transmission, licensing, pledge, mortgage, licensing or any such other agreement by the authorized user, provided that on the death of an authorized user his right in a registered geographical indication shall devolve on his successor in title under the law for the time being in force.

CHAPTER-X

RECTIFICATION AND CORRECTION OF THE REGISTER44. Power to vary a registration, and rectify or correct the Register.—

(1) Any person having a sufficient interest may apply for the rectification of an error or omission in the Register:

Provided that an application for rectification may not be made in respect of a matter affecting validity of registration of a geographical indication.

(2) The effect of rectification of the register shall be that the error or omission in question shall be deemed never to have been made.

(3) The Registrar may, on application made in prescribed manner, by the registrant or an authorized user enter any change in his name or address as recorded in the register.

(4) The Registrar may, if he considers it necessary, implement any amended or substituted classification of goods for purposes of registration of a geographical indication as may be prescribed.

(5) The existing entries on the register may be amended to record any new classification as may be prescribed.

45. Power to vary or cancel registration as an authorized user.—

(1) The registration of a person as an authorized user may be —

- (i) amended, corrected or cancelled by the Registrar on the application by the Registrant of the geographical indication or certification body or organization in the prescribed manner for failure to observe such conditions and restrictions which were pre-requisites of registration as an authorized user;
- (ii) amended, corrected or cancelled by the Registrar on the application in writing in the prescribed manner by an authorized user of the geographical indication; and
- (iii) cancelled by the Registrar as envisaged under clauses (i) and (ii).

(2) Registration of authorized user may be varied or cancelled by IP Tribunal in case of infringement of a registered geographical indication. It may be varied or cancelled by High Court in case an appeal is filed against a decision of registrar or an appeal filed against the order of IP Tribunal; in the prescribed manner by any person aggrieved or organization on the grounds that the authorized user has used the geographical indication in violation of the provisions of this Act.

46. Rectification of registration of a trademark.—The Registrar of Trade Marks Registry may, on his own motion or on application of an interested party, refuse or rectify the registration of a trademark which consists of a geographical indication with respect to goods not originating in the territory indicated, if use of the indication in the trademark for such goods is of such a nature so as to mislead the public with regard to the actual place of origin.

47. Power of Registrar to withdraw or transfer cases.—The Registrar may, by order in writing and for reasons to be recorded therein, withdraw any matter pending before an officer appointed under section 5 and deal with such matter himself either de novo or from the stage it was so withdrawn or transfer the same to another officer so appointed who may, subject to special directions in the order of transfer, proceed with the matter either de novo or from the stage it was so transferred.

48. Conflicting marks.—The Registrar shall, ex officio or at the request of an interested person, refuse or invalidate registration of an authorized user which contains or consists of a geographical indication to be used with respect to goods of the same or similar description as those designated by that geographical indication.

MISCELLANEOUS

49. Procedure before the Registrar.—(1) In all proceedings before the Registrar under this Act,—

- (i) the Registrar shall have all the powers of a civil court for the purposes of receiving evidence, administering oaths, enforcing attendance of witnesses, compelling discovery and production of documents, issuing commissions for examination of witness and granting a certificate of contested validity; and
- (ii) evidence shall be given by affidavit, provided that the Registrar may, if he thinks fit, take oral evidence in lieu of or in addition to such evidence by affidavit.

(2) The Registrar shall not exercise any powers vested in him under this Act or the rules made thereunder adversely to any party duly appearing before him, without giving such party an opportunity of being heard.

50. Appeal against decision of the Registrar.—(1) Save as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, an appeal shall lie, within the prescribed period, against any decision of the Registrar under this Act or rules made thereunder to the High Court having jurisdiction:

Provided that if any suit or other proceedings concerning the geographical indication in question is pending before an IP Tribunal, the appeal shall lie to the High Court within whose jurisdiction that IP Tribunal is situated.

(2) Subject to the provision of this Act and of rules made thereunder, the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908), shall apply to appeal before the High Court.

51. Application of certain provisions of the Trade Marks Ordinance 2001 (XIX of 2001), including provisions in relation to importation of infringing goods, material or articles.—The provisions of sections 52 to 68, 101, 104, 113, 119, 126 of the Trade Marks Ordinance 2001 (XIX of 2001) shall have effect to proceedings under this Act, in relation to all such matters referred to and provided therein as they have effect in relation to similar matters under the said Ordinance with respect to goods, except that references to the Ordinance, trademark, Trademarks Registry and district court they shall be deemed to be a reference to this Act, geographical indication, Geographical Indications Registry and IP Tribunal respectively.

52. Adaptation of classification of goods.—For the purposes of this Act, the Registrar shall use prescribed classifications, as revised or amended from time to time.

53. Revocation.—Any interested person may request the Registrar within twelve months of registration of an authorized user of geographical indication; or the High Court at any time after registration of an authorized user to revoke the registration of a geographical indication on the grounds provided under section 8:

Provided that if any suit or other proceedings concerning the same geographical indication are pending before an IP Tribunal, the application shall be made to the High Court within whose jurisdiction that IP Tribunal is located.

54. Power of fee setting and collection.—The concerned Division shall prescribe a schedule of fee and charges for services rendered to the applicants and the public or as otherwise required under this Act. Any fee collected under this Act or the rules shall be deposited in the name of Director General IPO as demand draft or as may be prescribed.

55. Power to make rules.—The concerned Division shall make rules, by notification in the official Gazette.

56. Registrar and other officers not compellable to produce register.—The Registrar or any officer of the Registry shall not, in any legal proceedings to which he is not a party, be compellable to produce the register or any other document in his custody, the contents of which can be proved by the production of a certified copy issued under the Act or to appear as a witness to prove the matters therein recorded unless by order of the IP Tribunal made for special cause.

57. Power to remove difficulties.—If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Federal Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as may appear to be necessary for removing the difficulty.

58. Repeal and savings.—(1) Clause (xix) of section 2 of the Trade Marks Ordinance, 2001(XIX of 2001) is hereby repealed.

(2) On the commencement of this Act any geographical indication registered under the Trade Marks Ordinance, 2001(XIX of 2001), shall automatically stand repealed and a fresh registration process under this Act shall require to be initiated. A non-exhaustive indicative list of prospective geographical indications of Islamic Republic of Pakistan is provided for fresh registration process in the Schedule of the Act.

TAHIR HUSSAIN,
Secretary.
