4. Senator Dr Asif kirmani	Member

4. The Committee considered the Bill, "The Pakistan Tobacco Board (Amendment) Bill, 2022" as passed by the National Assembly of Pakistan. The majority of the Members of Committee considered the Bill clause by clause and recommended that the Bill as passed by the National Assembly of Pakistan be passed by the Senate. Senator Sania Nishtar opposed the amendment and contended that the powers to constitute the Board, Tobacco Development Committee, and routine matters like power to export, power to direct purchase of tobacco and for information should be vested in the federal government and further that it waters down the authority of the federal government in the perspective of oversight which is the domain of the federal government.

5. After due deliberations, the majority of the Members voted in favor of the Bill. Accordingly, it was recommended that the Bill titled as, “The Pakistan Tobacco Board (Amendment) Bill, 2022” as passed by the National Assembly and transmitted to the Senate may be passed by the House.

6. Copy of the Bill is annexed as Annexure.

3. The Committee considered the Bill in its meetings held on 26th August, 2022, 30th September, 2022 and finally considered on 7th October, 2022. It is pertinent to mention here that on 26th September, 2022 the Bill was deferred on request of the Secretary Ministry of Interior who was of the view that certain amendments are required to be made in the Bill as the Bill was originally drafted by the Ministry of Human Rights. On 26th September, 2022, the Bill was deferred on request of the Secretary Ministry of Interior. On 30th September, 2022, the Bill was once again deferred on request of the Special Secretary Ministry of Interior.

4. On 7th October, 2022, Additional Secretary Ministry of Interior appeared before the Committee. The Ministry of Interior submitted brief in writing according to which the draft Bill has serious defects as well as contradictions and duplicity with the existing laws. The written brief further states that the defects have also been discussed with the Ministry of Law and Justice which has also agreed to those defects. In the written brief it has further been stated that the Bill in its present form is likely to attract criticism both domestically as well as from GSP+ review team.

5. However, the Additional Secretary, Ministry of Interior during the meeting categorically stated that the stance of the Ministry of Interior in the written brief is being withdrawn in the best interest of the State. Chairman clarified that the Ministry should not give an impression that the Bill is being recommended under duress or some sort of pressure. The Additional Secretary stated that there is no pressure rather the amendments can further be made after the enactment of the Law.

6. Thereafter, the Bill was put to the vote of the House and the Committee unanimously recommended that the Bill as passed by the National Assembly may be passed by the Senate. The Committee also gave approval of presentation of report of the Committee to the House. Hence, this report is presented to the House.

MUHAMMAD AZAM,
Secretary Committee.

SENATOR MOHSIN AZIZ,
Chairman Committee.

Explanation.— The offence under this section shall be cognizable, non-compoundable and non-bailable within the meaning of the Code.

9. Punishment for custodial death.— Whoever commits or abets or conspires to commit the offence of custodial death, shall be punished with the same punishment as prescribed in section 302 of the Pakistan Penal Code.

Explanation.— The offence under this section shall be cognizable, compoundable and non-bailable within the meaning of the Code.

10. Punishment for custodial rape.— Whoever commits or abets the offence of custodial rape, shall be dealt with and punished under the law and procedure for rape, and the provisions of this Act shall also be applicable to the accused, mutatis mutandis.

Explanation.— The offences under this section shall be cognizable, compoundable and non-bailable within the meaning of the Code.

11. Punishment for filing malafide complaints.— Whoever files a malafide complaint shall, after it is established that the complaint was malafide, be punished with the same punishment as is prescribed under section 8 for the perpetrators under this Act.

12. Appeals.— (1) An appeal against a conviction or acquittal of an offence under this Act shall be presented before the respective High Court within thirty days from the date on which copy of the order passed by the Court of Sessions is supplied to the appellant.

(2) An appeal against conviction shall not be admitted unless part of the amount, imposed in the form of fine as directed by the appellate court, is deposited in the court.

13. Time limit for investigation, trial and appeal.— (1) The investigation of the offences under this Act shall be completed within thirty days from the date of submission of the complaint.

(2) If the investigation of an offence under this Act is not completed within thirty days, the Agency shall call for a report for explaining the delay in completion of the investigation and if satisfied with the causes of delay, may grant maximum five days for completion of the investigation or if the Agency is not satisfied with the causes of delay, may transfer the investigation to another investigating officer who shall take up and complete the investigation from the same stage where it was left by his predecessor.

(3) If investigation of an offence is not completed within thirty days, the Agency shall also file an interim report before the Court of Session and the court may decide to initiate the trial on the basis of such information.

(4) The trial of offences under this Act shall be completed within three weeks from the date of submission of challan before the relevant Court.

(5) The appeal against the offences under this Act shall be decided within thirty days from the date of filing of such appeal.

14. Special protection.— (1) Any person, including the victim or complainant or any witnesses, who allege that he requires protection from a person accused of having committed an offence under this Act or from any of his associates, shall file a petition to the Court of Session in this regard.

(2) The court receiving the petition, after giving notice to the concerned parties, shall hear the matter and pass an order on the petition within three days.

(3) The court while disposing of such a petition as mentioned in subsection (1) shall make such orders as deemed necessary and appropriate according to the facts and circumstances of the case.

15. Act not to prejudice civil remedies.— Nothing in this Act shall prejudice the civil remedies available to the victim by virtue of any other law for the time being in force.

16. Overriding effect.— The provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force.

17. Provisions of the Code to apply.— The provisions of the Code shall apply to the proceedings under this Act.

18. Duties of the Government.— The Government shall take all measures to ensure that the provisions of this Act are given wide publicity through media at regular intervals and; the relevant public officials are given periodic sensitization and awareness training on the issues addressed in this Act.

19. Removal of difficulties.— If any difficulty arises in the implementation of the provisions of this Act, the concerned division may make such orders, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as may appear to it to be appropriate for removing such difficulty:

Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiry of a period of two years after the enactment of this Act.

20. Power to make rules.— The concerned division may, by notification in the official Gazette, make rules for the purpose of carrying out the objects and purposes of this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND RESAONS

It is the duty of the State to provide protection, either directly or by means of Institutional mechanism to its citizens against all kind of torture and right to fair trial. Moreover, Pakistan is a signatory to the UN Convention Against Torture and other Cruel, Inhuman and Degrading Treatment or Punishment (UNCAT) and International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR), both of which protect the right to dignity of any person who has been held in custody. Despite constitutional provisions and guarantees, there is no precise definition or penalization of the acts of torture within the criminal law regime of Pakistan. Therefore, the object of the Bill is to criminalize and prevent acts of torture, custodial death and custodial rape committed against persons held in custody by public officials, and provide redress to the victims of such acts.

2. This Bill seeks to achieve the aforesaid objective.

(Minister for Interior)

MAJOR (R) SYED HASNAIN HAIDER,
Acting Secretary.
